Acceptance Note Awareness

We at AFP Studio produce error free, virus free content and take every precautionary measure to safeguard and prescreen all data that is transmitted and accepted via email, including all content uploaded exclusively by AFP Studio to our servers utilizing a wide variety of McAfee products. Be aware that certain risks do exist in the realm of the internet and while our procedures are taken seriously, highly regarded and updated regularly to avoid unfortunate incidents, both by the use of software and hardware utilities, the risks of data interception, although rather unlikely and nearly impossible through a secure server transaction, still do exist. AFP Studio posts this awareness note as a demonstration of our commitment to the safety of the end user surfing our web site and domain. The end user visiting any web site or domain on the internet should inquire about the terms of use, privacy statement and general practices of the web site in question and be made aware of the risks the internet in general may pose to all users. We highly recommend you educate yourself on these risks with the following Mcafee.com link for complete virus and security information to protect your machine or network both online and off-line. If you are unwilling or unable to accept our terms of use, we thank you for your consideration and respect your decision not to use our services.
